

The Office of Human Resources will inform the employee through written notification.

The University will allow the employee an opportunity to discuss the matter and respond to the written notification within five workdays.

Employees may fulfill their financial responsibility by making the appropriate payment or by making arrangements to settle the